

THE SENSATIONAL STARLET

WITH A VOICE THAT DAZZLES

In the glitzy realm of Tinseltown, one name stands out among the stars – Marilyn Monroe. With her golden locks, seductive charm, and a sultry voice that could melt hearts, Marilyn has taken the entertainment world by storm. Marilyn Monroe, born as Norma Jeane Mortenson in 1926, has already left an indelible mark on the world of cinema. Her striking beauty and unparalleled acting talents have made her a household name.

This year, she starred in films like "All About Eve," and "The Asphalt Jungle," winning over the hearts of moviegoers far and wide. But it's not just her acting prowess that has captivated us all; it's her enchanting singing voice that is currently taking center stage. Her velvety voice has been charming audiences in nightclubs and on the radio. She's been performing at some of Hollywood's most illustrious nightspots and is a regular on the Old Las Vegas Strip.

Her performances leave no doubt that her musical talents are as impressive as her acting. Her highly anticipated performance at Delilah Supper Club on December 2nd is the talk of the town. Marilyn is sure to deliver an impressive set list of catchy tunes while partygoers drink and dance the night away. Fans can expect to hear hit songs like "I Wanna Be Loved by You", "My Heart Belongs to Daddy", and holiday classics like "Santa Baby". In an industry where talent often comes and goes like the ebb and flow of the tides, Marilyn Monroe is a star who seems to shine brighter with each passing day.
